Second Annual Old-Fashioned Halloween Festival At Westminster Place A Big Success

EVANSTON (Nov. 1, 2011) –Westminster Place hosted more than 1,200 people on a beautiful day at an old-fashioned Halloween festival which took place on Saturday, Oct. 29, 2011, from 1-4:00 p.m. at 3200 Grant St., Evanston, IL.

Families from the surrounding communities enjoyed carnival games, pumpkin decorating, a petting zoo and horse-drawn wagon rides, temporary tattoos, balloon animals, a family photo opportunity, storytelling, indoor trick-or-treating, taffy apples and other seasonal refreshments.

Many families from the community attended the festival and enjoyed the different Halloween activities.

Children who attended the Halloween Festival enjoy the up-close contact with the animals at the petting zoo.

Cindy Beasley of Naperville attended this year for the second time with her five-year-old daughter Amanda, “The variety of activities really makes it a lot of fun. My daughter loves the animals, the storyteller, all the different costumes and the pumpkin decorating in particular. And everyone is so friendly!” Cindy continued “My aunt, Margaret Luecker lives at Westminster Place but was unable to attend. However, my mom Gwen Luecker, who is 95 and lives in the neighborhood, came along with us. We all had a wonderful time.”
